Horrid Henry

Horrid Henry is about an incredibly naughty boy who loves pranking his family members, friends and especially his enemies! Beware, don't act like him though – just read his stories for fun.

Harry Potter

Enter into the magical kingdom of Harry Potter with caution: because you will fall in love and never want to leave Hogwarts, wands, dragons, magic, potions, elves, goblins – everything you've ever wanted – even unicorns – inside the magical world. Do hop on the Hogwarts Express and leave your homework on the table (shhh, don't tell mommy) and ride along with Harry, Ron and Hermione in their many adventures to save the wizarding world.
